Ginetta Juniors Knockhill Preview

Tom Carnaby's closed the Ginetta Junior Championship right down after Dino Zamparelli opened up a huge lead in the early part of the season. As the field head North of the border to Knockhill, Scotland this weekend, the gloves will well and truly be off!

Scunthorpe's Carnaby concluded an outstanding weekend's work at Oulton Park three weeks ago with his second top step domination of the season to close within just two points of long-time Championship leader Zamparelli.

The Tollbar racer would have had a 100% points score by clinching two wins and two pole positions, but his team-mate Fergus Walkinshaw just clinched the fastest lap point in race one.

Carnaby had previously claimed a double-victory at Rockingham where he again took back-to-back lights to flag victories while the remainder of the field fought it out amongst themselves.

Only Dominic Pettit prevented a second successive Tollbar racing podium lockout as had been the case at Snetterton. His runner-up spot in race one sandwiched him in between Carnaby and Josh Hill, but George Richardson joined his two team-mates in the second for a third Tollbar 1, 2, 3.

Zamparelli's been having a comparatively bad run of results of late that he will be anxious to rectify at Knockhill. An unfortunate collision at Croft put ended his race early, and a kerb punched a hole in his engine's sump in race one at Oulton Park. Engine replaced, he couldn't push it to the maximum but came home in 4th.

Four results can be dropped at the season's end, and with Carnaby having a tough Donington weekend, neither can afford a poor result...

Knockhill is a new circuit to the Ginetta Juniors, but have revelled in the characteristics of Oulton Park and Cadwell Park that have similar magnificent undulations.

Their Senior counterparts entertained at the Scottish track earlier in the year, now it's time for these youngsters to prove they mean business!
