

Ginetta's 24-hour Assault

Ginetta will have a three car presence at this weekend's forthcoming Britcar 24-hour endurance race at Silverstone (20-21st September).

The Yorkshire firm's G50 sportscar will be pitched against established machines such as Aston Martin N24s, BMW M3 E46 GTRs, and Porsche 996s in the Class 2 (red) division.

Regular Britcar runners Jemco (number 22) will be joined by British GT squad Stark Racing (number 21) and Ginetta 'works' team – Team LNT (number 27).

Ginetta Chairman Lawrence Tomlinson will lead the Team LNT fold with Richard Dean and Ginetta G50 Cup Champion Nigel Moore.

Tomlinson and Dean steered their G50 to a class win and 6th overall back in July on Silverstone's International circuit during the 3 hour Britcar event. 35 cars started the race with an unlucky thirteen retiring.

Fifty three cars are entered to race on the GP configuration of the Northamptonshire circuit, making up six different classes within the race.

In addition to the Team LNT squad, Jemco's driver line-up is headed by Kevin Hancock with Leigh Smart, Nick Reynolds, Craig Wilkins and David Cox sharing the duties.

Stark Racing comprises of Ian Stinton, Neil Clark, former Ginetta Junior & G20 Senior race winner Paul Marsh, and ex-Locost driver Jamie Robinson.

The G50s taking part this weekend will be upgraded 'base' cars that are seen in the single make Championship.

The Britcar 24 has become increasingly popular over recent years, particularly since its appearance in BBC's Top Gear programme last year with tickets selling well.
