

Ginetta Juniors: Revised Croft Results

It's unfortunate that some judicial concerns from the second Ginetta Junior race at Croft in June were not resolved until Snetterton last weekend.

Due to the fact that officials and parties involved in incidents had to be in the same place at the same time, the results of round twelve had remained provisional.

Daniel Lloyd had been reprimanded for an opening lap incident with Championship leader Dino Zamparelli, which led to the latter retiring with broken steering. An appeal to stewards was successful in excluding Lloyd from the race.

Lloyd is able to keep his point for his pole position, but is not able to drop the round as one of his four drop-scores at the end of the season because it is an exclusion.

Fergus Walkinshaw had also received penalty points on his race licence, but a two-second time penalty was also applied to the original second place finisher.

Therefore, Jake Farndon inherits his first win of the season.

Amended race results for Croft, round 12 are now as follows:

1st: Jake Farndon
2nd: Dominic Pettit
3rd: Fergus Walkinshaw
4th: Ashley Craig

All other competitors simply move up one place.

Amended points are as follows (after Rd14):

1st Dino Zamparelli, 395pts; 2nd Thomas Carnaby, 342pts; 3rd Daniel Lloyd, 261pts; 4th Josh Hill, 258pts; 5th Jake Farndon. 236pts; 6th George Richardson, 223pts.
