

Texaco Havoline Ginetta Championship 2007: From 10 to 9

Due to scheduling factors, the Texaco Havoline Championship has been reduced from 10 rounds to 9.

The Donington Park race on 21st / 22nd April has been eliminated from the calendar as a result of logistical matters with having three races in April, and also a busy Donington Park timetable.

“It is with regret that we have had to lose Donington Park from the calendar” said LNT Automotive Managing Director, Richard Dean. “What it has meant though is that what would have been a very busy April is now more manageable.”

The costs of the championship rounds for competitors now stand at just £5400 including VAT for the nine-round championship.
